Reservation, Payment and Cancellation Policies

Booking Conditions

- Reservations: All reservations must be requested in writing to bookings@cerroguido.cl

For each booking made, the client will receive a confirmation number as a backup for both parties.

The booking is considered to be confirmed once the written confirmation has been received.

- Tentative bookings: These are all those blocks that have not been assigned prepayments. In the event that Estancia Cerro Guido receives reservation requests, and there is no availability on the same dates, the client will be informed and will be given 5 days to make the corresponding prepayment to change the reservation to confirmed, otherwise, the reservation will be considered cancelled without further notice.

- Modification of reservations: Modifications to confirmed reservations are subject to the hotel's availability.

All modifications must be made in writing to: bookings@cerroguido.cl

A booking is considered modified only upon receipt of written confirmation of the modification.

- Late modifications: “Late modification” means any modified reservation that is within the days for which penalty applies according to the “Cancellation and modification policies” table. The table will be applied in days and penalty percentage for any reservation modified late (applies to changes involving a decrease in the number of persons, nights and rooms).

- Availability enquiry: Confirmation of availability is only given in writing via email, this means that a room is not considered blocked or booked via telephone or whatsapp. When availability is checked by telephone, an email must be sent formally requesting the block and once the confirmation email is received with the tentative booking number, the availability can be confirmed to third parties; this is due to the fact that bookings are very dynamic.

- Booking details: For each confirmed booking, we request:

Name of guests

Dietary restrictions or preferences

Date of birth

Nationality

Contact place for transfer in and out (transfer information applies only for all inclusive bookings).

For groups we request a rooming list 30 days prior to check in.

Conservation Foundation

Virtuous partnership between Hotel Cerro Guido and Cerro Guido Conservation Foundation.

The wildlife of the Magallanes Region, especially Cerro Guido, is a treasure that we must protect. For decades, the species that inhabit the area, especially the Puma, have been in danger due to the historical conflict in which this feline is seen as the main enemy of the cattle industry. For this reason, At Estancia Cerro Guido, we have taken a significant step to protect the heritage of this magnificent territory.

We have recently implemented a policy whereby a percentage of what you paid for your reservation, goes directly to Cerro Guido conservation foundation. What does this mean? It means that every special moment you experience here, every corner you explore and every smile you share, will be a concrete contribution towards heritage conservation. This + the conservation safari excursion are 2 concrete actions we are taken towards the safeguard of this magical territory.
