Estancia Cerro Guido

Fact Sheet
2026-2027 season

◆ — ◆

Estancia Cerro Guido is a historic, fully operational sheep ranch that is also home to an exclusive boutique hotel on the eastern edge of Torres del Paine National Park, in the heart of Chilean Patagonia. Set within more than 100,000 hectares of Patagonian steppe, the estancia enjoys privileged views of the Paine Massif and the tranquillity of a remote setting, just 40 minutes from the Laguna Amarga entrance to Torres del Paine National Park.

Its 21 heated guest rooms, decorated in a classic English style, are spread across carefully restored historic ranch houses. From here, guests can immerse themselves in Patagonian culture, explore the landscape alongside local gauchos, and experience a working sheep ranch where regenerative ranching, native wildlife conservation, and scientific research come together through the work of Cerro Guido Conservation Foundation—all complemented by warm hospitality and first-class service.
